No worries. Sounds good – I get in early on Mondays, so any time after 7 am PT would work. Thanks.

I talked with Jeanne after she spoke with you regarding this case. I had done research before we opened the case, but Jeanne mentioned there is a 9th Circuit case that might be relevant. I am aware of one involving mussels (my research is in the office and I am working from home today) which would be easily distinguished. Can you let me know the case to which you were referring? If you think a follow-up discussion would be useful, let me know.
Thanks.
